

Social Media

What is social media?

What social media do you use?

What do you like about social media?

Who are you talking to?

Jess gets a message from someone. He says he is Tyler and he is 14 years old. He asks her if she wants to join a group of boys and girls, chilling out at the skate park. They are listening to music, drinking, and partying. Jess hesitates, and then decides she will go. She says "why not, what could go wrong?"

Who did Jess think she was talking to?

How did the man trick her to get her to tell him her age?

How did he try to reassure her about meeting up?

When she was not sure, how did he make her smile?

What could go wrong?

Bullying

Sam gets added to a messaging group. He is told that Gemma and Max suggested it. This makes him feel he has mates. Then they start to say things. They say he has said they are stupid and they steal. Then they tell him that he smells, and will never have friends and girlfriends. They say he should man up and not be a wimp.

How did Sam feel when he was added to the group?

Why did they add him to their group?

How did their comments make him feel?

What do you think should happen to the group?

What do you think should happen to the group?

Who can help?

Gaming

The boy is gaming in his bedroom for hours. He scores and moves up the levels. When his credit is low, he needs money. He uses his parents' bank card again and again. Then he is joined in the game, by someone who says she is Lucy and 13 years. What might that person want?

Do games have age restrictions?

The boy played all day and into the night, how long do you play?

If you need to pay to play your game, how do you do that?

Why did the man claim to be a 13 year old girl?

What are the dangers with online gaming?

If things go wrong, where can he get help?

Image sharing

Tyler gets a message from his girlfriend. They both message that they like hanging out together. She asks him for a special photo, just for her. He takes a nude selfie and sends it to her. She sends it to a friend. Then the picture gets resent to loads of people.

Did Tyler think she was his girlfriend?

Why did she ask for a special photo?

Why did she send a picture like that to her friend?

Did she think her friend wouldn't send it on?

How does Tyler feel now?

What can he do about this?

Has the law been broken? By whom?

Malicious communication

This young person is on social media. He is messaging that people should demonstrate. He tells people to meet up on the street. He messages "let's show our anger, some people are not like us". He says people should be violent and burn things.

He says "don't let the feds stop us".

Can you name different communications?

What does malicious mean?

What words did he use which tell you this is malicious communication?

Who is he suggesting are targets for violence?

He is posting messages on social media, is he breaking the law?

What are the dangers of responding to him online or on the High Street?

